A Papa for our Church

We were all hoping to have a new Pope by Holy Week, so that he could offer the Mass of the Lord’s Supper, lead the Stations of the Cross at the Coliseum, and offer his Urbi et Orbi blessing after Easter Sunday Mass in St. Peter’s Square. Many thanks to everyone who prayed for Pope Emeritus Benedict, the Cardinals in Conclave, and our new Pope Francis over these last three weeks. Our prayers have been answered! As you can see from these pictures, the appointment of a new Pontiff evokes great joy and excitement among us Catholics. But I was touched by secular world’s respectful interest in the Conclave and appointment of a Francis I. Even the Los Angeles Times, which seeks to discredit the Church in the outrageously-biased journalism, has covered the story with almost childlike fascination and glee.

In 2009 I spent a year of sabbatical study in Rome, and went my first Sunday in the Eternal City to Pope Benedict’s Angelus Address. When he appeared in the window, to my astonishment I began to weep. The papacy is God’s gift of fatherhood to the entire family of man. It speaks to every soul.

Holy Week Retreat 2013

Fr. Luke Mata, a priest of Opus Dei, will lead our Triduum Retreat this year, entitled “Holy Week Liturgy and Life.” It runs from Holy Thursday through Holy Saturday, with three conferences a day and all the liturgical trimmings. Sign up at the Commons bulletin board if you are staying on campus over Easter.
This Week’s Funny
A man suffered a serious heart attack and had open heart bypass surgery. He awakened from the surgery to find himself in the care of nuns at a Catholic hospital. As he was recovering, a nun asked him questions regarding how he was going to pay for his medical services. He was asked if he had health insurance. He replied in a raspy voice, "No health insurance." The nun asked if he had money in the bank. He replied, "No money in the bank." The nun asked, "Do you have a relative who could help you?" He said, "I only have a spinster sister who is a nun." The nun got a little perturbed and announced loudly, "Nuns are not spinsters! Nuns are married to God." The patient replied, "Send the bill to my brother-in-law."
