Information about Meningococcal Disease, Meningococcal Vaccines, Vaccination Requirements and the Waiver for College Students

Massachusetts requires all newly enrolled full-time students 21 years of age and under attending college to: receive a dose of quadrivalent meningococcal conjugate vaccine on or after their 16th birthday to protect against serotypes A, C, W and Y or fall within one of the exemptions in the law, discussed on the following page.

The law provides an exemption for students signing a waiver that reviews the dangers of meningococcal disease and indicates that the vaccination has been declined. To qualify for this exemption, you are required to review the information below and sign the waiver at the end of this document. Please note, if a student is under 18 years of age, a parent or legal guardian must be given a copy of this document and must sign the waiver.

What is meningococcal disease?

Meningococcal disease is caused by infection with bacteria called Neisseria meningitidis. These bacteria can infect the tissue that surrounds the brain and spinal cord called the “meninges” and cause meningitis, or they can infect the blood or other body organs. Symptoms of meningitis may appear suddenly. Fever, severe and constant headache, stiff neck or neck pain, nausea and vomiting, and rash can all be signs of meningitis. Changes in behavior such as confusion, sleepiness, and trouble waking up can also be important symptoms. In the US, about 1,000-1,200 people get meningococcal disease each year and 10-15% die despite receiving antibiotic treatment. Of those who live, another 11-19% lose their arms or legs, become hard of hearing or deaf, have problems with their nervous systems, including long term neurologic problems, or suffer seizures or strokes.

How is meningococcal disease spread?

These bacteria are passed from person-to-person through saliva (spit). You must be in close contact with an infected person's saliva in order for the bacteria to spread. Close contact includes activities such as kissing, sharing water bottles, sharing eating/drinking utensils or sharing cigarettes with someone who is infected; or being within 3-6 feet of someone who is infected and is coughing or sneezing.

Who is at most risk for getting meningococcal disease?

High-risk groups include anyone with a damaged spleen or whose spleen has been removed, those with persistent complement component deficiency (an inherited immune disorder), HIV infection, those traveling to countries where meningococcal disease is very common, microbiologists who work with the organism and people who may have been exposed to meningococcal disease during an outbreak. People who live in certain settings such as college freshmen living in dormitories and military recruits are also at greater risk of disease from some of the serogroups.

Are some students in college at risk for meningococcal disease?

College freshmen living in residence halls or dormitories are at an increased risk for meningococcal disease caused by some of the serotypes contained in the quadrivalent vaccine, as compared to individuals of the same age not attending college. The setting, combined with risk behaviors (such as alcohol consumption, exposure to cigarette smoke, sharing food or beverages, and activities involving the exchange of saliva), may be what puts college students at a greater risk for infection.

The risk of meningococcal disease for other college students, in particular older students and students who do not live in congregate housing, is not increased. However, quadrivalent meningococcal vaccine is a safe and effective way to reduce their risk of contracting this disease. In general, the risk of invasive meningococcal B disease is not increased among college students relative to others of the same age not attending college. However, outbreaks of meningococcal B disease do occur, though rarely, at colleges and universities. Vaccination of students with meningococcal B vaccine may be recommended during outbreaks.

Is there a vaccine against meningococcal disease?

Yes, there are 2 different meningococcal vaccines. Quadrivalent meningococcal conjugate vaccine (Menactra and Menveo) protects against 4 serotypes (A, C, W and Y) of meningococcal disease. Meningococcal serogroup B vaccine (Bexsero and Trumenba) protects against serogroup B meningococcal disease. Meningococcal conjugate vaccine is routinely recommended at age 11-12 years with a booster at age 16. Students receiving their first dose on or after their 16th birthday do not need a booster. Individuals in certain high risk groups may need to receive 1 or more of these vaccines based on their doctor's recommendations. Adolescents and young adults (16-23 years of age) who are not in high risk groups may be vaccinated with meningococcal B vaccine, preferably at 16-18 years of age, to provide short-term protection for most strains of serogroup B meningococcal disease. Talk with your doctor about which vaccines you should receive.

Is the meningococcal vaccine safe?

Yes. Getting meningococcal vaccine is much safer than getting the disease. Some people who get meningococcal vaccine have mild side effects, such as redness or pain where the shot was given. These symptoms usually last for 1-2 days. A small percentage of people who receive the vaccine develop a fever. The vaccine can be given to pregnant women. A vaccine, like any medicine, is capable of causing serious problems such as severe allergic reactions, but these are rare.

Is meningococcal vaccine mandatory for entry into secondary schools that provide housing, and colleges?

Massachusetts law (MGL Ch. 76, s.15D) and regulations (105 CMR 220.000) requires newly enrolled full-time students 21 years of age and younger attending a college to receive a dose of quadrivalent meningococcal vaccine.

College students 21 years of age and younger must provide documentation of having received a dose of quadrivalent meningococcal conjugate vaccine on or after their 16th birthday, unless they qualify for one of the exemptions allowed by the law. Meningococcal B vaccines are not required and do not fulfill the requirement for receipt of meningococcal vaccine. Whenever possible, immunizations should be obtained prior to enrollment or registration. However, students may be enrolled or registered provided that the required immunizations are obtained within 30 days of registration.

Exemptions: Students may begin classes without a certificate of immunization against meningococcal disease if: 1) the student has a letter from a physician stating that there is a medical reason why he/she can't receive the vaccine; 2) the student (or the student's parent or legal guardian, if the student is a minor) presents a statement in writing that such vaccination is against his/her sincere religious belief; or 3) the student (or the student's parent or legal guardian, if the student is a minor) signs the waiver below stating that the student has received information about the dangers of meningococcal disease, reviewed the information provided and elected to decline the vaccine.

Where can a student get vaccinated?

Students and their parents should contact their healthcare provider and make an appointment to discuss meningococcal disease, the benefits and risks of vaccination, and the availability of these vaccines. Schools and college health services are not required to provide you with this vaccine.

Where can I get more information?

- The Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Division of Epidemiology and Immunization at (617) 983-6800 or www.mass.gov/dph/imm and www.mass.gov/dph/epi
- Your healthcare provider or local health department

Waiver for Meningococcal Vaccination Requirement

I have received and reviewed the information provided on the risks of meningococcal disease and the risks and benefits of quadrivalent meningococcal vaccine. I understand that Massachusetts' law requires newly enrolled full-time students at colleges and universities who are 21 years of age or younger to receive meningococcal vaccinations, unless the students provide a signed waiver of the vaccination or otherwise qualify for one of the exemptions specified in the law.

After reviewing the materials above on the dangers of meningococcal disease, I choose to waive receipt of meningococcal vaccine.

Demographic Profile Survey

Federal law requires Thomas Aquinas College to gather the following information regarding the ethnicity and race of its students. Thomas Aquinas College will keep your individual information strictly confidential. The law only requires educational institutions to report aggregate totals for each category.

Please answer the following two questions.

1. Are you of Hispanic or Latino ethnicity? Yes No

Check "yes" if you are a person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American or other Spanish culture or origin (including individuals who have their origins in Spain), regardless of race.

2. Please indicate if you are from one or more of the following races:

- American Indian or Alaska Native - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America) who maintains cultural identification through tribal affiliation or community attachment.
- Asian - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian Subcontinent, including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.
- Black or African American - A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa.
- Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
- White - A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

Thomas Aquinas College Consent to Release Educational Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") protects the privacy of your educational records and limits access to the information contained in those records. As a general rule*, the College may not release any of your educational records, even to your parents or guardians, unless you sign this form as indicated below. Educational records include, but are not limited to, information regarding your grades, account, financial aid, service scholarship, academic progress, health, and disciplinary actions. Without your consent, your parents or guardians might obtain this information, but only if they are claiming you as a dependent for tax purposes. You may revoke your designation at any time, otherwise we will presume that your designation below will remain in effect. If needed, additional forms can be obtained from the Registrar.

I have indicated below the individual(s) who may have information from my educational records (note: if you want to designate both parents please list both parents):

Name: _____ Relationship: _____
(e.g. John Smith) (e.g. Father/Stepfather)

Address: _____ Phone: (h) _____
_____ (w) _____

Name: _____ Relationship: _____
(e.g. Carol Smith) (e.g. Mother/Stepmother)

Address: Same as above _____ Phone: (h) _____
_____ (w) _____

I want the above individual(s) to be informed about all of the following matters: (1) my grades and academic standing; (2) my enrollment and attendance records; (3) my financial standing with the College; and (4) the details of any disciplinary proceedings to which I may be a party. (Note: If you do not want any one or more of these matters disclosed, contact the Business Office at 805-525-4417 to obtain an alternate form.)

In addition, please inform the above-named individual(s) if (1) the College becomes aware of my being hospitalized or treated for any medical emergency, or (2) someone at the College becomes concerned about me (for missing classes, engaging in disruptive or erratic behavior, etc.). (Note: Again, if you do not want this information disclosed, contact the Business Office at 805-525-4417 to obtain an alternate form.)

I understand that the College Dean or the Dean of Students will inform the above-named individual(s) of the above information if either of them believes it is in my best interest to do so, although I understand that circumstances may make it necessary for some other College official to act on their behalf.

Student's name (print) Student's signature Date

*The College may disclose certain of your educational records or identifiable information without your consent in such circumstances as when the disclosure

- (1) Is necessary to protect your health or safety or that of others;
- (2) Is in connection with your application for, or receipt of, financial aid and is necessary to determine the eligibility, amount, or conditions of such aid, or is necessary for enforcing the terms and conditions of your Payment Plan and Promissory Note (PP&PN);
- (3) Is to school officials with legitimate educational interests, including to officials of other schools you are seeking or intending to enroll in;
- (4) Is limited to certain "directory information," unless you have completed the College's Directory Information Exclusion Form. The College considers the following information to be directory information: date and place of birth, permanent and campus address, phone listings, campus email address, country of origin, student photo, prior school(s) of attendance, enrollment status, class year, dates of attendance, degree received and date received, participation in officially recognized activities, jobs held on campus (including salary and dates) and senior thesis titles.

For more details, and for additional grounds for disclosure, please consult the College's Policy on Release of Student Information, which is available from the Registrar.

Media Use

It is the practice of Thomas Aquinas College staff, faculty, and representatives to make digital, photographic, and video and/or film images and records of students, faculty, and staff during their time on campus and during their attendance at Thomas Aquinas College events. These images may be used at any time for promotional purposes by way of press releases and reports as well as for the advancement of the College through, among other things, its website, advertising, social media postings, and publications.

I have read and understand the above policy, and I consent to the College's use of any image or record of me for these purposes.

Notice of Availability of Institutional and Financial Aid Information

In the Higher Education Act (HEA), as amended, Congress requires that colleges annually distribute to prospective students a notice of the availability of institutional information. This notice must list and briefly describe the required information and include a statement of the procedures required to obtain the information. That list is shown below. If you need any further help after reviewing the sources shown here or after contacting the individual departments, contact the Financial Aid Office at 800-634-9797, extension 5936 for additional assistance. This list is not a comprehensive list of all HEA disclosures, but only those for which a notice must be issued to prospective students.

Notice of Non-Discrimination Policy, Anti-Harassment Policy, Title IX Coordinator

Non-Discrimination Policy

Thomas Aquinas College is committed to complying with all applicable laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, or age in its programs and activities. Anyone who believes that the College has, through any of its agents, officials, programs, or activities, violated any such applicable law should notify the official below promptly so that complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved. The official will investigate the alleged incident promptly and thoroughly, affording all concerned an opportunity for explanation. The official will notify the complainant of the final decision, which the complainant may appeal to the President, whose decision will be final.

The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding this non-discrimination policy:

Yolanda Rivera, St. Thomas Hall, Room 128, 10,000 Ojai Rd., Santa Paula, CA 93060

(805) 421-5908, email: yrivera@thomasaquinas.edu

Anti-Harassment Policy

Thomas Aquinas College is committed to providing a school environment that is free of harassment, including sexual harassment. If you believe you are being subjected to such harassment, or if you witness conduct that you believe constitutes harassment, you must report the matter to the attention of the Assistant Dean or the Title IX Coordinator immediately so that complaints can be quickly and fairly resolved.

The law protects you from any retaliation for reporting or participating in an investigation of a discrimination or discriminatory harassment complaint. A prompt and thorough investigation of the alleged incident will be conducted. To the extent possible, the investigation and any subsequent action will proceed in an atmosphere of confidentiality.

Sexual harassment is considered to be unlawful sex discrimination and may be found when, among other reasons, a student initiates unwelcome sexual advances, remarks or jokes of a sexual nature, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, which has the purpose or effect of creating a hostile and intimidating environment sufficiently severe or pervasive to substantially impair a reasonable person's participation in the College's programs or activities. In determining whether alleged conduct constitutes sexual harassment, consideration shall be given to the record of the incident as a whole and to the totality of the circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incidents occurred.

The Assistant Dean's contact information is:

Assistant Dean, St. Thomas Hall, Room 132, 10,000 Ojai Rd., Santa Paula, CA 93060

(805) 421-5958, email: studentaffairs@thomasaquinas.edu

Title IX Coordinator

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits discrimination based on sex in education programs and activities that receive federal financial assistance.

Mr. John Quincy Masteller serves as Thomas Aquinas College's Title IX Coordinator. As Title IX Coordinator, he is responsible for ensuring that the College complies with Title IX and properly investigates complaints of sexual discrimination, harassment, assault, violence, and other sex-based complaints from students, staff and faculty. Mr. Masteller is also responsible for ensuring that the College community is properly trained regarding Title IX.

Mr. Masteller's contact information is:

John Quincy Masteller, Title IX Coordinator, St. Thomas Hall, Room 101, 10,000 Ojai Rd., Santa Paula, CA 93060

(805) 421-5930, email: qmasteller@thomasaquinas.edu

Mr. Masteller also serves as Thomas Aquinas College's General Counsel.
